“On the memorable day of my ordination in 1970, I wrote these words of my seminary spiritual director in my diary: ‘While there have been many days in my life as a Priest when I have been unhappy, there has never been even one day when I was unhappy that I was a Priest.’ Next to those words I wrote, ‘I hope and pray that this will be true for me.’ Now, forty years later, I can say that it has indeed been true for me.”
